BAKEWELL MARKET

Monday 27th July

The rules have changed yet again with masks required within the market buildings and around the sale rings. Sincere thanks to everyone who came prepared and abided to by the recommendations of the Livestock Auctioneers Association and the Government. There was full compliance with this new measure which, bearing in mind new outbreaks could be with us for some time to come. The only other change to normal procedures concerned those bidders who normally twitch the corners of their mouth to bid and have now had to change to hand signals. It is a small price to pay for making things safer and allowing the market to keep running. Thank you for your co-operation. Sheep numbers were well up at 2,161 the largest entry for some time. Cattle numbers down a bit at 433, but what we lacked in quantity was made up for with quality and prices to match. Store Cattle numbers at 194 with a shortage of younger cattle. Trade was even dearer than we have seen it in recent weeks with Steers to £1,360, Heifers £1,275 and Feeding Bulls £755. Bakewell buyers want your stores now, ask yourselves whether you want to keep them into the Autumn with trade as it is.

There were 116 Finished Cattle with prices that are clearly driving the demand for Stores. Top figures 240p and £1,509, Steers averaged and the 52 Heifers averaged 204.3p which should give you something to think about.

Please find us some more OTM Cattle, demand has outstripped the supply which was 93 head this week.

Top figures 192 and £1,455 per head.

The average was an extraordinary 140.9p for an entry with a good many plain cows in it.

Calf numbers down again at 30 with Bulls to 440 and Heifers £350. So, nothing wrong with the trade.

And now to the sheep. 1,603 Lambs forward with the best on offer to 266p and £120.04 The SQQ for a mixed sample at 226.2p (last year it was 182 pence)

A handful of old season lambs still finding their way to Bakewell selling to 189p and £97.02.

467 Cull Sheep to include a good many hill breeds topped at £122 to average £72.05.

Up 10 pence on the week!

Certainly, the dearest they have ever been and dearer now than the 2013 Horse meat affair. The appetite for cow meat is high and if you have cows to market, you should be taking advantage of the strong demand at Bakewell. Cows today peaked at 192p twice for Blues from Andrew Bland. Top 17 over 160p, quite unreal the level of trade! Angus to 191p, Herefords to 181p and a Welsh Black to 128p.

37 Black & White and ex-dairy cows Ave 134.p

Unbelievable! The first B&W cow in the ring made 160p and it continued from there. OTM clean Heifers sold to 169p (31 mnths) 168p (33 mnths) etc with better cows generally upwards of 145p with Holsteins 120-140p and only a couple of very plain Cows in the 90's

STORE CATTLE - (Auctioneer Alastair Sneddon)

Perhaps it was haymaking last week and that concentrated the minds and resulted in a smaller entry of 194 Store Cattle, but it was definitely nothing to do with concerns over trade.

Those that did sell Cattle today enjoyed some marvellous results as regular buyers worked hard to secure stock.

If you have Store Cattle to sell our buyers definitely want them now and it is hard to think that they could be any more valuable in a month or two's time.

30 CALVES (Auctioneer Ivor Lowe)

A disappointing entry in terms of numbers after last week's larger entry and the trade being seen recently.

If anything, trade even dearer with 3 Calves over £400 to a top of £440 and Heifers to £350.

Plenty of interest in the Black & White's with the better sorts upwards of £100 to a top of £160.
