

MARKET REPORT

BAKEWELL MARKET

Monday 5th July

A busy day in all departments with prices strong throughout.

122 finished cattle continued to sell at very respectable levels with Bulls to 271p/kg, grossing a top of £1766, Steers to 271p/kg and £1766 and Heifers to 270p/kg and £1683.

A similar story for the OTM's attracting decent numbers of 103 with top prices of 239p/kg and £1674/head.

Store cattle again out in good numbers totalling 310 and a large gathering of purchasers ensured a strong trade for all, especially the stronger types. Top priced Steers at £1500 and Heifers at £1485.

A slight increase in sheep numbers with 1362 on offer with lamb trade a little firmer with the average at 248p/kg, well up on last year.

Ewes again commanding an excellent level of demand to a top of £174 and the average at £105 per head.

Calves continuing to sell well with Bulls to £430 and Heifers to £325, with more required to satisfy demand.
