

MARKET REPORT

BAKEWELL MARKET Monday 18th October

Another big day at Bakewell following closely on the heels of the High Peak Livestock Society's sales of Suckled Calves and Hill Sheep.

A good number of producers tied up under the 6-day rules, but 663 cattle and 2,128 sheep were forward for the Monday market.

Not quite as many Store & Breeding Cattle on offer, but a respectable entry of 419 sold on another tremendous trade.

Steers reached £1,425, Heifers £1,370 and Feeding Bulls £1,005. Cows & Calves reached £1,390 and a 46 mnths Simmental Stock Bull £1,720.

Finished Cattle numbers were well down at 72 and prices very strong as a consequence. Top figures 285p and £2,026 and the average for the 21 heifers 237p.

Plenty of action in the OTM section with top figures 186p and £1,590 to average 132.3p.

Calf numbers holding steady at 51 with Bulls to £325 and Heifers £255.

Things were busy in the Sheep Department. There were 1,667 lambs forward with the best to 296p/kilo and £145.92 per head. The SQQ average for a somewhat mixed entry was 234.2p.

Another decent entry of 461 Cull Sheep with Ewes to £155 the average £77.61.

(Auctioneer Oliver Hiles)

Another very good entry of cows and a full line up of buyers and a very strong price for all cows on offer with cows dearer on the week. Better sorts 160p plus with plenty more 150p +.

72 FINISHED CATTLE – overall average 233.4p (Auctioneer Oliver Hiles)

A very disappointing entry of only 72 cattle from 30 vendors and selling to a packed ring of 16 individual buyers. I suspect many vendors today would be tied up with the '6 Day Rule' due to calf and sheep sales on Friday and Saturday last week.

22 Finished Bulls ave 222.6p/kg

Very dear with a super top price of 276p for a pure Blonde from Charles Mycock, Flag. Keith Harrop had 251 and 247p with big Char from Messrs Prue, Woolley grossing up to £1904 and £1873. Friesian to 209p (twice) for Messrs Mason and Messrs Cresswell.

Proceedings commenced with the presentation of a bottle of Bagshaws Whisky to Robert Flower of Alstonefield, winner of last week's caption competition.

461 Cull Sheep

A very varied entry with not as many “best end” continentals as recent weeks but plenty of buyers for all categories including the plainer types and grazers.

Top call £148 for big Texels from Furness & Taylor, with others at £139 and £138.

The Mules varied a little with the best above £102 but some meated types with much less frame £72- £78.

Best framed over £64 and buyers from 3 counties for grazing and feeding ewes.

Competition for big strong tups was good with 4 cull rams over £112 to top at £185.

Ewes to £148 Ave: £77.56

Rams to £185 Ave: £111
