133 Barren, OTM and Feeding Cows overall average 162.1p/kg (£1,073) (Auctioneer Oliver Hiles) (8 pence less on the week)

Another very big entry of cows today from 56 vendors from a very wide area including a couple of new vendors today. Some of the heavy meated and non Farm Assured cows today would be a little less money, the B/W's would be similar on the week.

Trade is still miles ahead of last year when in 2021 this week we had 121 cows to average 132p. Best OTM heifers today sold at 218p and 210p with best cow at 209p from Stuart Mycock.

More cattle on offer and an excellent trade for the meat and quality but a couple of runs of 'outside cattle' are certainly showing the weather.

37 Young Bulls ave 227.2p

Dearer on the week with the average up a bit and the best certainly better sold. A trio of suckler bred bulls topped out at 271 p for bulls from Stuart Mycock, Mark Hadfield and Keith Harrop. 10 B/W sold to 210p.

43 Steers ave 230.1p/kg

Exactly the same average as last week with meat very much in demand. Some plainer cold clean cattle today in the entry sold for further feeding to five different accounts and would look well sold, but that is the advantage of selling in a green (restricted) market. Blues peaked at 274p for a super sort from Brian & Harold Ponsonby, Tideswell Moor with other good meat sorts 250p plus. 7 Angus to 250p, 4 Hereford to 254p and 2 B/W to 188p.

STORE & BREEDING CATTLE – (Auctioneer Alastair Sneddon)

Numbers almost the same as last week with 585 store cattle on offer. The cross section of the cattle on sale did not include as many strong sorts as last week.

There were some good runs of quality young cattle which sold very well indeed and the short finish smart cattle came to some very satisfactory figures.

Trade was solid for all sorts and prices remained firm right to the last beat in the ring.

29 Feeding Bulls

A few more on offer this week including:

£900	S Horn x	17 mnths	R Mosley & Son, Elton
£890	S Horn x	8 mnths	N & J & S Taylor, Hollow Meadows
£720	B Blue x	7 mnths	Roger Barlow, Leverton

£760	B Blue x	6-13 mnths	GA & SM Wainwright, Bamford
£500	Lim x	4 mnths	CH Ede & Son, Alkington

302 Steers ave £878

More small and young cattle this week and a lesser proportion of the strong short finish types.

A significant number of weathered cattle that have suffered from the lack of grass.

All types found a ready market at a suitable price level and every animal changed hands.

Angus crosses attracted the fiercest competition some outstanding results.

A very mixed selection with some fine specimens hitting the highlights.

At the other end of the spectrum there were a good many heifers both old and young that had clearly suffered from a lack of keep and the next owner a difficult task to renovate them. All found a ready market, but at very different prices.
