“Classic Sale Attracts Massive Crowd in Derbyshire”

Saturday 26th July 2025

The retirement dispersal on behalf of Mr John Glover of Hollies Farm, Marston Montgomery, Nr Ashbourne attracted a massive crowd from throughout the UK together with bidders from Ireland and the North of Scotland and with just over 500 vehicles in the car park the crowd swarmed round the lots, and the bidding was heated.

With around 30 vintage and classic tractors together with two excavators a telehandler and Honda Quad Bike lotted bidding was fierce right from the start.

The main pull of the day was obviously the vintage and classic tractors as the Glover family had amassed a superb collection with everything starting and running on both the day before the sale and sale day itself. The classic Marshalls commenced with a model M on number 1178 believed to be from 1941 which achieved £12,500 to a Cheshire collector.

At the start of the run of the Field Marshalls was a Series I Contractor on No. 1302 which achieved a superb £13,500.

The Series II Field Marshalls topped at £8,900 for a Contractor with Winch on No.4193 with others at £7,100.

Obviously, some of the major stars had to be the Series III Field Marshalls with the orange livery Series IIIA on No.16300 achieving an excellent price of £19,300 purchased by a local farmer/contractor with another Derbyshire potential purchaser unhappily leaving the field having been finally outbid.
