

BAKEWELL MARKET REPORT

Monday 11th August

A very warm day 573 cattle and 1077 sheep on offer.
A feeling of stock being in short supply with demand strong and prices buoyant.
Lamb numbers down on the year as producers struggle to find lambs fit enough to sell finished.

There was a decent show of 298 store and breeding cattle with plenty of buying power in operation and purchasers present from considerable distances to the North and East to compliment the regular set.

Steers topped at £2,620 to average £1,636 with heifers to £2,680 ave £1,332.

Feeding bulls sold to £2,500 to average £1,156.
