FOREWORD

This genuine dispersal sale arises as a result of the relinquishing of the tenancy on Wibbern Hill Farm and the Etches family have been tenants of the Tissington Estate for two generations spanning over 52 years.

Originally the farm was a dairy unit and more recently sheep and store cattle have been reared on the farm.

There is a good range of small equipment for the grassland and livestock producer including a smart Talex 250 Rear Mounted Mower which has undertaken little work since 2024.

The Kubota RTV was purchased with little hours on and the Zetor Proxima tractor with loader was purchased new.

There is also a range of non-vat sundries and collectables together with special entries from various non-vat registered vendors in the locality and purchasers should attend and bid with confidence at this genuine Saturday sale.

GENERAL NOTES

Situation

Wibbern Hill Farm lies to the north east of the village of Tissington towards Bradbourne and the Ford.

From the centre of Ashbourne pick up the A515 towards Tissington and Fenny Bentley and continue up the bank passing the old Bluebell Public House on the left. Continue for approximately $\frac{3}{4}$ mile and turn right down into Tissington village. On entering the village pass the Hall on the right and at the grass triangle bear left passing the pond on the right travelling right towards Bradbourne and the Ford. Continue to the old railway bridge (Tissington Trail) and turn immediately left into the farm drive.

From Newhaven and Buxton travel south at Newhaven on the A515 towards Ashbourne and after 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles pass the New Inns on the left. After a further 1 mile turn left (at the top entrance to Tissington Village) and travel down into the village. Continue to follow the directions above down through the village and passing the Hall.

It is recommended that all vehicles use the north entrance to Tissington Village as there are stone gate post pillars on the crossroads near the former Bluebell Public House.

'To the Sale' and 'Car Park' signs will be erected on the morning of the sale.

Please refer to the location map within the catalogue.
